The second secon

CAST IN PLASTER

A Society Young Woman Has Her Arm Modelled for The World. WHO WILL NAME THE CITY Read THE SUNDAY WORLD.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1890.

ON THE BIG SPAN.

an "Evening World" Artist's Pleasant

Day Observations.

Unique Types Among Brooklyn Bridge Pedestrians.

Dr. Talmage, a Speculative Milwaukee Man, the Bostonese, "et al."

Proud and lowly, begger and lord, Over the Bridge they go.

Yes, thousands and thousands of them every day, go either way and both ways over he magnificent East River span, for which n mount of familiarity will ever breed the least perceptible bit of contempt in any New York er Brooklyn mind.

bridge is sublime from any point Its graceful curve when seen from the river; its majestic towers as they loom through | had just passed them they would have called distant vision of roofs and chimney tops; its ar-reaching roadway and promenade, stretching away from the foot or carriage passenger in long lines, bordered by a network of supporting cables that seem almost delicate compered to the massiveness of the whole strucure—these things, to say nothing of the superb speciacles of land and water to be seen from the bridge's height, bring out perforce whatever artistic sense lurks in any man's But man built the bridge, man uses it, and man will always play at times the part of the unconscious humorist. His fellow-man smiles at the play one moment, and in the next be atmself has become the funny fellow.

There was humor in every attitude of the old gentleman from Milwaukee w o blocked the way of an Evening World artist at the entrance to the bridge promenade. He had shoved out one of Secretary Win-

AN INTERESTING AND INTERESTED PAIR. for his proposed passage, and he had received in chan, e a pile of small silver that would have been accounted treasure in the days when specie was rare and resumption of it he inflicted on the Western man, but the latter didn't notice the omission. He was counting his change. Finally it dawned upon him that mly one one-hundredth part of a dollar was nissing from the amount he had tendered, le looked at the ticket-seller, at the artist, at he promenade opening before him. Fresh from the town which bore proud ownership of Humorist-Mayor-Governor-elect Peck, he was yet dazed at this exhibition of metropolitan liberality.

"Great Scott !" This when he found words to speak. "To take ip all that for one cent, and it cost fifteen millions of dollars !"

Be was persuaded to pocket his cash and his surprise and to pass on. The artist followed However, if those two preferred to filter their-him, paying his way with a ticket which was it was only for them to decide and to act. On one out of twenty-five bought in a bunch for a The man from Milwaukee hurried off to reach and inspect the first tower. The artist agged in the bright supablue and fresh sir. fowded. Yet there was life and plenty of the lose to the man of the negrit and th lose to the man of the pencil and sketch-book cut garb and a wom in in the vari-colored habill- among them he caught something about ments of the recently landed emigrant from, "mystic symbolism" and "the cult."

perhaps, the Near oldan district. She was That was enough, Shades of the Howells vacious and talkative.

vacious and talkative. realism, de end him! The Bos onese were carried political sampolaharst nevelo u on him—or rather, upon the bridge. Yes, pluribus unumiste etate onellions "---No that ex-city, it may be but approximately in mind and in no y. On the highest point, at so. It may have been about the bridge, or once, of Brooklyn Bridge and of psychic slid along the northern tracks, New Yorkward.

GAZING AT THE TOWER.

on the promenade, also bound for New York.

figure. Yet it was that of the Rev. T. De Witt

Was the hurrying pastor thinking of his new abernacie or of his next Sunday evening talk at the Academy? He alone knew, and didn't tell. He looked neither to right nor to left, but strode steadily forward, an umbrella poised in his left hand, his generous and erstwhile eloquent mouth closed to the world and to The artist rather imagined that had the rustic couple a little further on, beyond the tower, known that the distinguished preacher

AH! THE BOSTONESE.

heir gaze down from the summit of that imposing pile of stone. But they didn't. They only knew Talmage from his sermons in the patent outside of their home weekly; and so their open eyes and open mouth as well were directed straight to the top of the wonderful

"Why, Jane, it's higher'n the meetin'-house, and it's got stone enough in it to pave the hull dern road to Bloomingville."

the Bridge breeze.

The Milwaukee man was climbing the steps to her words a little further on.

about "Lt Mana," or about the possible effect the ry.
of the McKinley bill on the hand-organ and lf only they would have come down long peanut trades; but it all went with her comenough to compare the Bridge to Bunker Hill

> Courch. But they didn't. They never even mentioned the bridge of Democratic votes on which young Rus-ell will walk into the Governor's end of the Massachusetts State House; and the artist walked on dejectedly.

"I sar. It was the man from Milwankee again. He stood in rapt contemplation of the little but at the Brooklyn tower, where they keep workmen's tools and bridge policemen and such ignorant class of neopie, uncouts and un things. "I say but, a man could make lots of money there. Now, if there is one thing which, more than

"Why, get the caudy and sody-water privi-must explain to this enthusiastic visitor from man in the place turn sick with horror. the West that all the money-changing which A heavy truck rumbled away on the south could be done on that structure was carried on Krullach, who was taken into custody. When roadway, bound Brooklynward. A catle train at the various ticket offices.

This duty he performed kindly, but undinchingly. He even went so far as to take under A striking figure of a man suddenly appeared GREAT FOR A SODA-WATER STAND.

HER BODY HACKED TO PIECES. OH! THE STREETS!

there they walke there and high-very high. Horrible Murder & a Pretty Girl on Long Island.

Monument or Faneuil Hall or the Old South The Alleged Slayer Jailed After Threats of Lynching.

> IMPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.1 SATURLE, L. L. Dec. 27.-News of a most atroclous sutchery at boucmiaville, two miles north of here, was received this morning. Bohemiaville is a small settlement tohabited chiefly by l'ores and Hungarians. They are an educated. The moral standard of the settle-This morning the inhalitants of the hamlet them. Bungarian gir', was found interally backed to veloped himself. He then proceeded to the Dieces. The limbs had been cut off from the trunk The arrist sighed. What sort of man was and the body itself was dismembered. Noth- storm had practically ceased, the Commissioner this whom Mayor Peck had let out of his muing remained of the once comely girl but a bloody mass of flesh and bones. It was a ers numbering about 650, with 420 carts. These erest of art and the bridge regulations he ghastly sight and made the stoutest-hearted were scattered about on Broadway. Fifth ave-

Suspicion immediately attached to Frank third streets. e obtained from him.

As soon as the excitable crowd saw Krulisch from them as quickly as possible.

This is one of the most fiendish murders that snow. nas ever been committed on Long Island. The woman was first stabbed to death, and then The cause for the murder is not yet clear. It is said that Krulisch was jenious of Winnis thoroughtare.

Croups. She was considered the best looking. Not a crossi girl in Bohemiaville, and the young fellows of the neighborhood looked upon her with favor. hers also. He was a man of flercely jealous disposition, and was feared and disliked by all

No Signs that Mr. Beattle Knows There Has Been a Snowstorm.

Invisible Progress of the Street-Cleaning Work.

Yesterday's Blizzard Passes Away to Labrador-A Fair Sunday Promised.

Commissioner Beattle was afforded a splenbecame wildly excited when they learned that did opnortunity to show his ability as a street a brutal murder had been committed among cleaner last night, and this is now he did it: them. "He purchased a big ui-ter an immense. The body of Winnie Croups, an attractive pair of boots and a fur cap, in which he en-

Department stables in East Eighteenth street. At 6 o'clock last evening, when the snow Bur, Madison avenue, Fourteenth and Twenty-

At 10 o'clock this morning Mr. Beattle's small confronted with the muti ated remains of the army had succeeded, Deputy Commissioner girl, Kruisch gazed stolidly before him. He Dalton said, in removing about 1,800 loads of admitted the killing, but nothing further could snow, but from what streets this had been taken it was pard to determine from an exam instion.

they made such demonstrations of violence. The only portion of a street which approxi-that it was deemed advisable to get him away matel cleanliness was Broadway from Liberty street to Mail street, and between those points Krulich is now in jail. The Coroner has the Steam Company's superheated mains had materially sided Beattle's men in removing the NOT A CROSSING SHOVELLED OFF.

Below Liberty street to Bowling Green, the her murderer, with devillan malignity, cut her snow had not even been filed up for removal. body up piecemeal, so that when it was found and it stood in high ridges on either side of the t had literally to be gathered up in tragments. | railway tracks, an almost impassable barrier to pedestrians who desired to cross the

Not a crossing was clear. People from one side of Broadway to the other waded inrough piles of dirty snow. There were heap Krulishch is supposed to have been a lover of of it to be traversed by Mr. Beattle himself ridges of the frosty mud extended all along town stre te, to the great injury of the tempers and morals of unfortunate pedestrians.

Mr. Beattle had managed to get the snow in street, gathered into piles, but there was nowhere to be seen along that long stretch of the principal business thoroughfare of the city one of the Street Department carts engaged in removing the snow.

The consequence was that the great process sion of trucks which is constantly moving through Broadway was forced to the railroad tracks, and traffic was greatly impeded.

had received Mr. Bea'tie's attention, aithough mong the first to be cleared of snow. Horses were wallowing through them thi morning, drawing heavy trucks sunk hub-deep n a mealy mass of dirty-brown snow and grit. BEATTIE WANTS MORE MONEY.

Deputy Commission r Dalton, who, with the Commissioner and Supt. Whalen, had been working all night, came down to the office early this morning to renew his plea for more loney to remove the snow. He acknowledged that the results of last night's efforts were unsatisfactory. He said that a great seal of work he snow on Broadway as far north as Fiftyinth street, and Fifth avenue from Twentyhird street to the Park. The effort had been

The greatest difficulty, he said, had been xperienced in getting latorers to work. Most of the department men had worked all him yesterday that he should have had all the money he wanted, he would have had 2,000 more men at work last night and 1,000 carts rrying away the snow and dumping it into e river. Laborers were easy to get, accord-

Opposed to these statements are those of his the Russian sieuge. emove the spow.

THERE IS NO SNOW FUND LEFT. The reseon the money was not transfered to Mr. Beattic's snow account yesterday was beans erred to that for the removal of snow, sailed seaward this moraling.

which was completely exhausted by last ropriation. BEATTIE GETS $8,000 TO-DAY.

The Board of Estimate this morning trans- A. M., not yet arrived. erred to Mr. Beatile's anow account $8,000 rum the appropriations for the Department of delay. usile Works, which Commissioner Gilroy anounced that he coul i spare. The Street Cl aning Commissioner is there ore at liberty to hire the 2,000 liberets and ,000 c ris which he sa a he wants, and by tonorrow he may make some impression on the now which is banked in suge plies to every reet of the city. CLEARING FNOW BY BLOCES.

Ex-Labor Agitator George clair, the first District Tammany Hall politican, wrote to deyor Grant to-day urging the adoption of a NOCK system of street cleaning. He stated twich New York and Phila telphia tast night.

A NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION.

No. 1.

HAMLET, PRINCE OF DIRTMARK-To turn over a new leaf and shock the people with surprise, and take the chances of getting a larger appropriation? But perhaps 'twould be cheaper and easier to keep on turning the same old leaf.

dents of Metropolitan Life.

Skull and Hammer Met.

John Seery, of 210 West Sixty-fifth street, has a frautured akuil, at Roosevelt Hospital.

A Choreman Who Got Drunk.

Patrick Breen, who does chores at St.

Mayor Grant Will Testify.

Gen. Henry L. Abbott, President of the Board of Engineers, appointed to take evidence

Winter Ocean Voyagers.

Rev. Mr. Casgrain, M. Demainville, Rt. Rev. Innokin'y, Co. Jaconson, G. D. de Mendaza, F. A. Masselli, E. T. Sin er and D. Tamagno.

tonio Locatico, of No. 879, in five consecutive sh.ia. He was held in Hariem Police Court for felonious .sasuit.

A Thief Caught on the Run.

yesterday while running with stolen property from Dominick Maregrino's place, 49 Mott street, w s beid at the Tomba to-day for ex-amination.

A Car Driver Held in Waiting.

car which ran over Peter Oberle, aged fift en.

Dennis F. Chrystie, driver of an Avenue C of 54 ittinge street, was held the morning, at Essex Market, to await the result of the coy's injuries.

County Clerk-ele-t Glegerich will have to disbecause the Boars of Estimate has reduced the appropriations for the County Clerk's office for 1891 by 19,438. charge thany searchers and recording clerks of he new brid e orose the Harlem River at Macomo's Dam rose is $1. 57,500, which is in ite than the law Hows to be expended.

Their Station is in Gun Range.

the larter being in dangerous proximity to Became Suddenly Insane.

Nearer to Rapid Transit.

Mayor Grant's new Rapit Transit Commis-sioners have arranged to qualify by taking the sain of office and fining their tonds on Mounay Went Insane in an Uptown Hotel.

A Laborer Struck by a Train.

John Moore, a laborer, of White Hains, who

Wa tress Mary O'Ne li was taken to Bellevue

Rose Garbatee, an Austrian woman, thirty

The life-saving one v at Spermacett Cove, N.

.. w re to-day ordere : to vacate their station

Joseph Conen, of 80 Allen atreet, arrested

Jose, h's Hospital, One Hundred and Forty and Montreal, about 2 o'clock this morning, and they are now united and moving northeastwardly to the ocean. The result of this union has caused an 18-tuch snow fait and a rise of 15 to 30 orgress in the temperature along the St. Lawrence Valley, The Minor Incidents and Accicompanies by exceedingly high winus. The we ther promises to be fair and slightly colder to-day and to-morrow, with possible furries of snow or rain. The twenty-six mile breeze blowing here to-day is likely to be considerably increased. The temperature at 8 o'clock this morning was 25 degrees in New York, 28 n Philadelphia, ston and Pittsburg, and S degrees at North-Beld, Vt.

John McGuire, of 901 West Sixty-aixth street, who hit nim with a hammer, last night, in a saloon quarrel, is locked up in West One Hundreth street. According to the Signal-Service people thirteen inches of snow fell here during the bitzzard, while Eastport, Me., enjoyed a large rainfall. Along the coast north of New York there were beavy snow and sleet storms. . wires all in good share.

Shird street and Brook avenue, speut last night in a Morrisonia cell, for getting drunk and acting Wire Chief Mitchell, of the Western scaring the Sisters in charge of the no-pital.

Union Telegraph Company, said this morning that the Company's lines were in good shape to-day, in spite of the big blizzard of yester-regarding the building of the Hudson River Bridge, h a invite, mayor Grant to appear be-fore the Board at the army building on Jan. 8. "There is absolutely but one point from which we are out off to-day, and that is Sandy Hook.

"Last night we had considerable trouble between Philadelphia and Baltimore, but we Among the passengers on La Bourgozne, which sailed hence for Havre to-day, were: have had gange of men at work this morning and now have a limited service between those points, which will be much improved during

Up on Seventh avenue, above the Park, on Lenox avenue, St. Nicholas avenue and the Bonievard, as well as the roadways through the Park itself and away up over the Harlem, the air is filled with the music of sliegh was done which is not apparent to the casual bells, the laughter of happy sleighing parties server. An attempt had been made to pile and the crunching of snow under noofs and runners.

There is snow sufficient for the finest kind of sleighing, and thousands are availing themselves to-day of the unwonted but altogether deligntful exercise. Every kind of conveyance on runners is out. There are nest, cosy little cutters, with only day Chr simis, and were called on to do extra room enough for two; the old-fashioned family duty during the storm. Many of them who sleigh, with los of space and furry robes; the were expected, though, aid not report for handsome, stately Canada sleigh-coach and

Opposed to these statements are those of his chief in a written appeal to the Board of Estifrom the "ping" to the $10,000 trotter, and Woe in the County Clerk's Office. mate and Apportionment for more money to those who rode behind the grocery horse emove the show.

He declared that, had the Pourd assured their more luxurious neighbors.

Everybody who owned or could procure a horse and conveyance on runners is out, and all combine to make a scene inspiriting and beautiful on the splendid uptown avenues. SLEIGHING ON STATEN ISLAND.

The roads on Staten I-land this morning were covered with sici. hs n i cutters. The large fleet of salling vessels and Sanly suse of a desire to see how much money he Hook pilot coa's, which had put into a narbor may have in other accounts which might be at Staten I-land during the slorm yesterday

DELAY IN THE MAILS. Supt. Mor, as at the Post-Office said this Mr. Dalton presented a statement before the morning that incoming mails were all delayed Compiroller this morning showing that there three or four hours to-day by the storm is but $18,079.76 to Mr. Beattle's credit in the Mails from the South due here at 9.50 ity Treasury, and every penny of this will last night did not arrive until 6.37 e needed for the purposes for which it was his morning; from the Southwest, by riginally appropriated. The officials of way of Pittsburg, due 4.17 P. M., arrived the Deptyment including Mr. Pestite, have 12.30 a. M.; from Boston, due 4.20 a. M., ar-submitted to a 14 per cent. rejuction of their rved 7.45 a. M.; Boston, via Providence, due soluties to allow the administration to pull 6.45 A. M., arrived 11.15; Colcago, over the years old, living at 21 Division street, ecome brough the year within the limits of the ap- N w York Central, due 6, 45 A. M., arrivet 9, 30 instance this miching and was removed to repriation.

A. M. Maile over the Eric roal, due 7, 45, ar. Believue Hospital. A. M. Mails over the Erie roa !, due 7.45, arrived 11.55 A. M.; from Montreal, due 7,50

Gutgoing mal-s are being forwarded without Fair Weather and Much Colder.

WASHINGTON, Dec. For Tustera Acre

"Why I Am a Jew."

tico terra sconter cold tem, erature will fall

Thread Mills to Resume Monday. The mills of the Clark Thread Co. at Newark morning.

The blizzard case departed, and Sergt. Jesunofsky amounced this morning that, with the exception of a possible flurry, there would be no more snow in New York at present. The following record shows the changes in will resome work in part Monday, when en-

Patrolman Eg ert shit and killed a mad dog

Connoisseurs award the palm of excellence to J. Caivet & Co.'s fine Clarets and Eurgun-

PRICE ONE CENT.

STOCK REPORTS.

Higher Market and Marked Advances Reported in Wall Street.

Financial Circles Cheered by the Weekly Bank Statement.

Western Rallway Presidents to Be Again Convened Next Week.

The week closed with a higher market for Speculation this morning was strong from star: to fulsh, and advances extending to 3% per cent, in Sugar Trust were recorded. The bulls gained a little courage when they found that the London market was firm despite the decime here yesterday, but the main ca for the improvement is the decided change for the better in the monetary situation. This is plainly reflected in the bank state-$3, 224, 275. The banks now have $7,725, 175 in excess of the 25 per cent. regal requirement, the largest amount since Oct. 4. They gain in cas ; this week no less tran $3,658,600. The following are the comparative figures:

following are the comparative figures:

Loans. 6396, 378, 290 $285, 24, 399 Dec. $1, 056, 250 Secte. 74, 476, 200 $285, 24, 399 Dec. $1, 056, 250 Secte. 74, 476, 200 $785, 24, 399 Dec. $1, 056, 250 Secte. 74, 476, 200 $785, 24, 399 Dec. $1, 396, 600 Leg. ten. 24, 191, 191, 291, 294, 390 Inc. 1, 729, 300 Gritum 4, 396, 193, 392, 049, 390 Inc. 1, 729, 300 Gritum 4, 396, 193, 392, 049, 390 Inc. 1, 729, 300 Tree intenties of specie at the port of New York for the week were $5, 000, 508, making a total since Jan. 1 of $25, 210, 664.

It has not yet been occides whether the next meeting of the new Western Presidents Association shall be held in this sity of in Calcara. The Committee has the mattrunder advicement, and a form it call will probably be sent out early in the calming week.

Directors of the St. Faul Company yetterdive faults the rail regular exclusions after ment, and appointed President Rowell Miller and Sammel Stencer, of Drexch, Morgan & Co., as the Advisory Board, to represent the road.

The earn high of the citica of any Northwestern road for November whee $4, 538, 914, against

The earn ngs of the filter o and Northwest-ern road for November were $4,538,970, against ern road for Assembler were $2,538,970, against $2,518,502 in 1889.

New trait late to Shirtle extinated at 6,000 miles, against 5,201 a 1889. Over 2,000 miles of this year's instructed at each in the Southern group of States and all of 11,000 miles are in the Southwestern group. The Northwestern group shows 1,007 miles of new track.

The sales of the Stock Exenenge to-day embraced 40,000 shares of discol atocks, 183,000 ounces of saver ago 50,000 barres of oil.

The Closing Quotations.

Michael Spardino, of 311 East One hundred Swed Jersey Central and Twelfth street, missed his neighbor, Antonio Locatico, of No. 809, in five consecutive shots. He was held in Hariem Police Court for felonious assured. 144

> Mining Stocks. The following were the closing quotations for mining stocks at the Consolicated Exchange to-day:

Lid. Asked Fig. Bid. 4 Homestake. 5.00 Homesta Eid. Asked An Habitual Drunkard at 22.

John Bunion, aged tw-nty-two, got three Bruns commonths for habitual drunkenness at Esex Can. d. H.

Market this merning. His mother, Mary Bunion, of 143 Madison street, was the complainted Convenite Convenite Control of Control o - Mano 45 Muddle Bar. 11 Monitor 60 North Star. 15 N. C'nw'lth Engineer Boller to-day reported to the Board of Es mate his e tim to for the construction Kur-sacan, 3.00

Hale & Nor. 1.25

Panic and Death Overtake Merry Warwick Skaters.

PT CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. LONDON, Dec. 17. -The ice broke to-day on the River Avon at Portobeilo Bridge, War-Wick. to-day from the higher at 100 host Forty-righth fuere were thousands of skaters on the surstreet, having suddenly become violently in-face at the time A papie followed and there was a rush for the shores. Many persons broke through and were reaeard with difficulty. Several disappeared under the ice and were drowned. Clerk McKeeser Resigns. John McKeeser, who for the past afteen years has been connicted with the Third Dis-riet Civil Court at Jefferson Market Court, indered his rest, nation this marning to Judge The Life of Tony Pasters the well-known varieties manager, written by himself, will appear in to-morrow's SUNDAY MER-

CUBT. 's'

DON'T forget Sick Hendache is often oured in two hours by CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

The Hatteras storm, which was central be-ween New York and Philadelphia tast night, net the northwestern storm between Quebec Read Rabbi Gustav Gotthell are markable article in Paulsts, bunday, Jan. 5. The Father Elliott of the Paulsts, bunday, Jan. 5. The Bary & Co., 43 Warren street, agents.

That may not have been the place he mentioned, that fustic gazer, but it was a blooming town outside of New York, and, after all, what's in a name? If somebody had even then called the wonvisible and rapidly striding Talmage and had Congressman McKinley or the Kaiser Wilhelm. of a name and they would have looked and ooked with all their dear rustic eyes and with never a suspicion. Over the bridge they go. And there was another open-mouthed pair, Wonderers? No. They belonged at one en f the bridge or the other, fast enough, and had been across before. But getting along in the teeth of the wind, they gave it teeth for ridge tower.

payment a thing of the future.

The ticket-selier didn't apologize for the load

IN THE TEETH OF THE WIND. teeth, as it were, and the dental display wa something extensive all around, Truth to tell, it was a strong wind, but i wasn't a dusty one, and most of the people on the bridge seemed to take it kindle as it came. it was only for them to decide and to act. On Brooklyn Bridge, despite the best efforts of the dominant police force, a man's liberty to breathe as best suits his own taste has never been infringed upon The artist was by this time midway on the

He stopped, as other and greater artists than he have done, to pause and reflect. A long troop of plainly dressed and while-aproned shildren passed him. They were from sominstitution in one of the ig sister cities there, and were enjoying a constitution, i under the Care of two black-garbed S sters.

By way of contrest to this picture of innorence, a bine-c-ated officer came along to onof the bridge seats to ar use an stak up a slouchy man for whom the mild day har been too muca-a fellow was had aused so lonand reflected so deeply, somewhere, that siumber's chain had finally bound him even more eith stoutly than had it been of the sert to come oft in the stilly night. "

• What a world of life." thought the artist. Here are man and man's work everywhere. boats and the big steemers on the river; in the poor R. cy Costs p of Society, Latest Sporting Information, Odd stores and the shops and the officer, above roofs stretch far and wide in all her visit because In the bustling tugs and ferry boots and for ight Hearts are beating, brains i resenem ng, him is are working, humanity is all "---

B-r-r-r-r: A sudden chill in the air. The weed an interesting pair-a man in quaintly | Strange words fell upon the artial's car, but | another, will interest a man who lives for art alone, it's the mention of cash, or the jingi ng of coin. The artist promptly asked how this panion, who was seen to nod vigorous assent his wing (a m. re figure of speech, for the artist was no fiver) this unsophisticated man from the regions of Pabst, Peck and pure politica.

He taiked to him gently, as a brother might, and caused him to see, long before the Brook-and caused him to see, long before the Brooklyn end of the brince was reached, the error of his speculative way.

And Milwaukee responded nobly, liberally:
"Come back with me on the train, young man, and I'll pay your fare."

The artist he-itated. It was something to have three cents apent for one. Yet duty called him another way, and in all noble natures duty must triumph over all else. It did in this case. The artist went on.

Price 5 Cents.

SPLENDID

AMONG THEM WILL BE

EVICTIONS IN NEW YORK A "World" Reporter De-

ceeding Those in Ireland. WHO WILL HAME THE CITY? Will the Future Metropolis "The World's" Special

New York?

MORE BASHKIRTSEFF MEMOIRS. How Her Last Painting Was Executed near Paris.

INSPECTOR BYRNES AND CRIME.

A NEW FAD IN SOCIETY.

He Tells Why Thieves Are Plenty at Holiday Time.

A Young Waman Has Her

Hand Cast in Plaster for " The

THE VANDERBILT GRANDCHILDREN. How Miniature Beaux and scribes Scenes of Misery Ex- Belles are Trained for the Social World.

FASHIONS FROM PARIS.

f Manhattan Island Be Called Correspondent Takes a Peep in Regent Street Windows.

MRS. HENRY WARD BEECHER. I ow the Widow of the Great Brooklyn Preacher Spends Her

THE LITTLE DEFENDERS.

ested in the Account of the Prize Dog " Defender."

FEES IN THE CLUBS. Christmas Tide is Harvest Time for " Buttons."

Every Child will be Inter-

Read The

SUNDAY WORLD

happenings About Town, Leading Interests of Women, All the the News of the Globe and the Hundred Other Features of

THE BEST FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

· FEATURES